

NEBOSH INTERNATIONAL CONSTRUCTION CERTIFICATE

Upon completion of the NEBOSH Health and Safety Management for Construction (International) course, learners will have the skills to assist their organisation in meeting their legal construction safety obligations. Learners will also understand how to identify and control construction site hazards and advise on risk management.

This course has 156 hours of study time required.

This course is typically completed within 3-6 months.

12

You have access to this course for 12 months from the date of enrolment. This course is RQF level 3, SQF Level 6 and NQF Level 5.

This course is aimed at construction personnel and managers with health, safety, and welfare advisory roles.

www.SHEilds.org

The NEBOSH Health and Safety Management for Construction (International) focuses on best industry practices for managing and implementing safety management systems.

This Construction Certificate is designed to cover general health and safety issues within a construction context as well as placing emphasis on the specific construction issues that make the industry amongst the most dangerous to work in.

SHE
ilds

View
Qualification

The NEBOSH Health and Safety Management for Construction (International) is a qualification for those with construction management responsibilities, and those required to provide routine advice on health and safety in construction.

This qualification is ideal for those currently working or planning to train as a Construction site manager, Contract's manager, Site worker with health and safety responsibilities or Construction health and safety advisors.